About this segment
Pleasantville

This is the
dominant segment for this area

In this area
15.6%
of households fall into this segment

In the United States
2.2%
of households fall into this segment

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Prosperous domesticity best describes the settled denizens of Pleasantville. Situated principally in older housing in suburban areas in the Northeast (especially in New York and New Jersey) and secondarily in the West (especially in California), these slightly older couples move less than any other market. Many couples have already transitioned to empty nesters; many are still home to adult children. Families own older, single-family homes and maintain their standard of living with dual incomes. These consumers have higher incomes and home values and much higher net worth. Older homes require upkeep; home improvement and remodeling projects are a priority—preferably done by contractors. Residents spend their spare time participating in a variety of sports or watching movies. They shop online and in a variety of stores, from upscale to discount, and use the Internet largely for financial purposes.

Our Neighborhood

- Suburban periphery of large metropolitan areas, primarily in Middle Atlantic or Pacific states
- Most homes owned (and mortgaged)
- Households composed of older married-couple families, more without children under 18, but many with children over 18 years
- Older, single-family homes two-thirds built before 1970, close to half from 1950 to 1969
- One of the lowest percentages of vacant housing units at 4.7%
- Suburban households with 1 or 2 vehicles and a longer travel time to work

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 64% college educated, 34% with a bachelor's degree or higher
- Low unemployment at 7.8%; higher labor force participation rate at 67%; higher proportion of HHS with 2 or more workers
- Many professionals in finance, information/technology or management
- Median household income denotes affluence, with income primarily from salaries, but also from investments or Social Security and retirement income
- Not cost-conscious, these consumers willing to spend more for quality and brands they like
- Prefer fashion that is classic and timeless as opposed to trendy
- Use all types of media equally (newspapers, magazines, radio, internet, TV)

Market Profile

- Prefer imported SUVs, serviced by a gas station or car dealer
- Invest in conservative securities and contribute to charities
- Work on home improvement and remodeling projects, but also hire contractors
- Have bundled services (TV/Internet/phone)
- Access the Internet via fiber optics or cable modem, on a newer computer, to pay bills, make purchases and track investments
- Subscribe to premium channels (HBO, Showtime or Starz) and use video-on-demand to watch TV shows and movies
- Enjoy outdoor gardening, going to the beach, visiting theme parks, frequenting museums and attending rock concerts

About this segment

Up and Coming Families

This is the #3 dominant segment for this area	In this area 6.6% of households fall into this segment	In the United States 2.5% of households fall into this segment
--	---	---

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Up and Coming Families is a market in transition—residents are younger and more mobile and ethnically diverse than the previous generation. They are ambitious, working hard to get ahead, and willing to take some risks to achieve their goals. The recession has impacted their financial well-being, but they are optimistic. Their homes are new, their families are young. And this is one of the fastest-growing markets in the country.

Our Neighborhood

- New suburban periphery: new families in new housing subdivisions
- Building began in the housing boom of the 2000s and continues in this fast-growing market
- Single-family homes with a median value of $174,000 and a lower vacancy rate.
- The price of affordable housing: longer commute times.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Education: 66% have some college education or degree(s)
- Hard-working labor force with a participation rate of 71% and low unemployment at 7%
- Most households (63%) have two or more workers
- Careful shoppers, aware of prices, willing to shop around for the best deals and open to influence by others' opinions
- Seek the latest and best in technology
- Young families still feathering the nest and establishing their style.

Market Profile

- Rely on the Internet for entertainment, information, shopping and banking.
- Prefer imported SUVs or compact cars, late models
- Carry debt from credit card balances to student loans and mortgages, but also maintain retirement plans and make charitable contributions
- Busy with work and family; use home and landscaping services to save time.
- Find leisure in family activities, movies at home, trips to theme parks or the zoo, and sports, from backpacking and baseball to weight lifting and yoga.

The screenshot shows the RPR website landing page. At the top, there are logos for RPR and the Metro Association, along with a 'Log in to RPR' button. The main headline reads 'RPR: redesigned, reorganized and refreshed for your success.' Below this, a paragraph describes RPR as the nation's largest property database built exclusively for REALTORS®, highlighting its innovative benefits and on-the-go access. A bulleted list details the types of data and reports available, such as on/off-market listings, school and neighborhood data, and the Exclusive Realtor Valuation Model (RVM®). To the right, there is a video player showing a mobile app interface with the RPR logo and a play button, and buttons for downloading the app from the App Store and Google Play. Below the main content, there are three tabs: 'Beyond the Basics (Residential)', 'Beyond the Basics (Commercial)', and 'Webinars'. The 'Webinars' tab is active, displaying a video player for 'RPR Basics & Beyond: Introduction to RPR' and a table of contents for the webinar series.

Accurate valuation “extremely important” to REALTORS®

Refine Value Create CMA

More than 65% of REALTORS® in a recent RPR survey agreed that it is “extremely important” to present an accurate valuation when first meeting with a seller. The result is a 16% increase over a similar 2018 study and a key indicator of seller demand for the most accurate valuation possible.

REALTORS® who leverage RPR, a member benefit, have exclusive access to the platform’s Realtor Valuation Model® (RVM®). Unlike other models, the RVM uses on-and-off market MLS listing data, plus publicly recorded sold data to form an estimate.

Check out the RVM for your subject property at narrpr.com. While there, try your hand at the “Refine Value Tool” and CMA.

Use of CMAs in listing presentations on the rise

Recent findings by RPR reveal interesting facts for REALTORS® preparing for their next listing presentations.

According to a survey of 800 REALTORS®, the percentage of agents who provide sellers with a CMA increased 8.3% from a similar 2018 survey. Providing sellers with an Estimated Home Value increased nearly 16% in the same period.

Additionally, the percentage of listing presentations resulting in a signed contract increased ten points from 46% to 56%. A good indication that a CMA is the new “price of admission” when it comes to listing presentations.

RPR Tips & Tools: January 2021

Now is a good time to start thinking about where you want to take your business in the new year. Learn how RPR can help.

Create real estate reports that get attention!

As the nation's largest real estate data and reporting platform offered exclusively to REALTORS®, Real Estate Property Resource (RPR) provides public records and MLS listing data, demographics, psychographics, neighborhood and school information, and advanced research and reporting tools.

Customizable, clean, timely reports are one of RPR's core strengths. Last year, REALTORS® created more than three million property, seller's, market activity, neighborhood, and school reports, among others.

And it's all included in your member dues. No additional fees, no program options.

Log into RPR now through your Microsoft CONNECT dashboard to create your report. Just look for the Experience Layer to walk you through the process.

RPR's Guide to Geographic Farming

RPR's Guide to Geographic Farming, a series of quick video tutorials, will show you how to use the platform's customizable maps to identify potential neighborhoods, analyze the area's marketability, and calculate absorption and turnover rates. Finally, you'll learn how to use RPR's Market Activity Report – a snapshot of active, pending, sold, expired, and distressed properties – as a prospecting tool.

Click out the buttons below to visit RPR to create your farming strategy.

How to Access RPR
